PURPOSE AND OUTCOME

Course Overview:

This course is designed to provide students with a broad overview of the History of Psychology. The goals of the course are to familiarize students with the historical movements and antecedents associated with Psychology, including:

- 1) The major ideas that have shaped the development of Psychology and to provide a context for the paths Psychology has taken over the past several centuries;
- 2) As the formal discipline of Psychology did not emerge until the late 19th century, we will begin by tracing its roots in the domains of Philosophy and Physiology.

Relation to program outcomes:

This course serves as an upper-level graduate course within Clinical and Health Psychology at the University of Florida.

Course Objectives: After successfully completing CLP7934, students will be able to (including but not limited to):

1. Gain factual knowledge related to the History of Psychology (including terminology, classification, methods, and trends).
2. Recognize the names of individuals responsible for the founding and development of the discipline of Psychology.
3. Identify the major philosophical positions that have influenced the discipline of Psychology.
4. Identify and describe the major schools in the history of Psychology.

5. Name important dates in the history of Psychology.
6. Describe how the discipline has evolved over time and identify major paradigm shifts.
7. Explain how the events of the past have shaped the current discipline of Psychology.

Instructional Methods:

Lecture, class discussion (when possible during the semester), and small-group and individual work will comprise the majority of class sessions. The role of the instructor will be to: present an overview of relevant topics, provide additional reading material and learning resources with up-to-date research findings, facilitate discussion of selected topics, and provide timely feedback. Expectations for students are to attend class fully prepared, participate in class discussions, and read assigned materials prior to class in preparation for lecture. Following most class sessions, students will be expected to complete a 3-2-1 exercise in which they describe: a) “3 new things I have learned from the lecture,” b) “2 things in the lecture I found particularly interesting;” and c) “1 thing from the lecture that I still have a question about.” These exercises will be completed through the Canvas Discussion Board, as will be described during the first class meeting. These 3-2-1 assignments will be graded for completion. Please have them completed within 24-hours of the classes for which they are assigned. I will do my best to provide feedback in a timely manner.

Required Equipment

See UF Student Computer Requirements. Your program may have additional requirements. For this course you will need a computer that can run the Google Chrome browser with high-speed internet access, a webcam, and microphone.

For technical support for this class, please contact the UF Help Desk at: Learning-support@ufl.edu, (352) 392-HELP (option 2), or <https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml> 3

The Respondus LockDown Browser Proctoring Service

For the graded exams, this course will use The Respondus LockDown Browser. Your exam will say "requires use of the LockDown browser" in the title of the exam and you will not be able to begin the exam in a traditional browser. If you have not already installed the browser, you will be given a link to download the browser, or you may install the browser at any time. (All UF Computer Labs have LockDown browser installed.) Once you have installed the browser, you may use it for all future exams requiring the use of the LockDown browser. Once you have installed the browser on your computer, open the LockDown browser. It will open directly to the Canvas log-in page. Click login in the upper right corner and login using your gatorlink username and password. You will then be in Canvas. Go to the course where the test is being given and begin the quiz. You want to make sure you have a strong, reliable internet connection when using LockDown browser. It is not recommended to take the quiz from a cafe or other open wireless connection. When taking a quiz in the LockDown browser, your computer will be disabled for all purposes except for taking the quiz. You cannot visit another website, open another application, or copy/print any screen.

The only way to get out of the LockDown browser is to submit your exam.

Exam Rules

Check your syllabus for other rules related to quizzes and exams. Examples:

- Exams and quizzes will be administered as described in the course schedule.

- Exams and quizzes will be closed book & closed notes, unless otherwise noted during class by the instructor.
- Some faculty allow students to have blank sheets of paper as scrap paper or a calculator, but you will be required to use your camera to show both sides of paper or calculator when this is allowed. If it is not specifically stated in the syllabus, don't bring extra materials.
- Exams may be taken at a student's home. Students must plan to take their exam in an environment where other people are not in the room during the exam.
 - You are required to pan your camera around the room and your desk and clear it of anything not allowed in the exam.

Kognito Training:

Kognito is a free online training simulation course that teaches effective techniques to help and refer friends, classmates, and peers around you who might be showing signs and symptoms of emotional distress. Kognito has three unique training modules, one for friends and family of students, one for faculty members, and one for helping student veterans. You are only expected to complete the At-Risk for Students module, though I encourage you to explore the other modules as well.

As a friend, family member or UF peer, you may be the first one to notice signs of distress of someone around you. At UF, it is our shared responsibility to look out for one another and we are here to support you help distressed students. The UF Counseling and Wellness Center offers a free online resource, Kognito, to help you practice having difficult conversations and learn tools for when students show signs of stress. With Kognito, you can learn how to talk about these signs, practice sharing your concerns, and learn how to motivate the person in distress to seek help.

To take this course, follow these instructions:

1. Go to kognitocampus.com
2. Click on “Create a New Account”
3. DO NOT USE THE SAME PASSWORD AS YOUR GATORLINK ACCOUNT
4. Fill out form and use the enrollment key: `uflstudent`
5. Select your category
6. Follow the on-screen instructions
7. Download your certificate of completion and upload to the corresponding Assignment in Canvas

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

Exams:

There will be TWO (2) exams—a midterm and a final; each will be worth 30.03% of the total grade. The final exam will not be cumulative and will cover material from lectures, readings, and in-class presentations or discussions. The format of exams will be multiple choice and short answer, and typically include a short-answer extra-credit question. There will be no make-up exams, except for documented medical reasons (i.e., physician note); other documented emergencies may or may not be approved pending decision by the instructor. If you miss an exam, you will receive a score of zero on that exam. Students who must miss class on the day of an exam may request arrangements to take the exam early, pending approval by the instructor. Such requests should be submitted in writing to the instructor as early as possible in the semester; these arrangements must be made early in the semester or they will not be considered. Exams will be administered through Canvas; thus, a compatible electronic device will be required to take the exam. Exams will be set-up such that you cannot access other browsers or windows on your device while the exam is in session (i.e., using LockDown Browser).

Class attendance will be rewarded via the inclusion of in-class information in each exam that is not covered in the textbook. Exam #2 will be the Final Exam which will occur during “finals week” (on 4/27, 3-5pm, as determined by UF).

Canvas Quizzes:

There will be three (3) bi-weekly graded quizzes during this course, each will contribute 5 points 1.5% to your final grade (for a total of 4.50% of your final grade). Quizzes will be administered outside of class time via Canvas—typically quizzes will open 4pm on the day they're assigned and must to be completed by 11:59pm the day on which they are assigned. Quiz content may come from any lecture, Henley text readings for the specified 2 previous class sessions, and will typically comprise 5 multiple-choice questions. Quizzes missed due to unexcused absences will be given a zero. Quizzes are closed-book and no notes will be allowed. A Canvas-compatible electronic device will be required to take the quizzes. Quizzes are closed-book, to be completed independently; no notes will be allowed. Quizzes are closed-book and no notes will be allowed. As the quizzes won't be monitored using an electronic proctoring service (used only when assignments are $\geq 15\%$ of the course grade), students are expected to adhere to the Academic Integrity code (outlined below) and not use notes and/or text to aid their performance.

Assignments Submitted to Canvas:

There will be two (3) graded assignments in this course, as described below. The assignments will vary in nature; for example, they will include online discussion-board posts, and/or trainings.

- 1) Assignment #1: Biographical Statement. This will help me to learn about each of you—your backgrounds, interests, and goals for the class. This assignment is due 5pm, 2/7. This assignment will contribute 5 points (1.5%) to the final grade.
- 2) Kognito training certificate. Ordinarily, I would have a Kognito ambassador conduct a brief Kognito workshop during class. In lieu of this for the current semester and the blended learning format, please complete the Kognito training link to complete the certificate. If you have completed a Kognitio-training certificate within the past 12 months, you're welcome to include that as an upload to the assignment for credit. This assignment will contribute 5 points (1.5%) to the final grade.

- 3) End of term paper: You will be asked to complete an end-of-term paper. This would comprise creating an academic "genogram" (family lineage) of you and your faculty mentor, going back several generations. The primary aim would be to gain a better understanding of your academic lineage. Try to go back 2-3 generations from your faculty mentor. You'll likely notice that there are crossing genograms (i.e., in-breeding) among your classmates.

You can accomplish this in several ways:

- 1) Interview of your faculty mentor, and/or;
- 2) Use the "academictree.org" website.

Write a brief description of your mentor and his/her academic "parents," to include area(s) of study, university of degree, and their major contribution to the field of psychology.

I'll provide an example of my academic genogram early in the semester, to provide an example of what's expected. This assignment will be graded for completion, and will contribute 40 points (12.01%) to the final grade.

Attendance:

Attendance will be expected at every class, except for the two take-home/Canvas exam days and for students who don't have time conflicts with our Monday zoom gathering (as I know some have). Understanding that many of you are engaged in clinical (& research) activities, I am aware that these can sometimes impact ability to attend class. I will be flexible in this respect and ask that you contact me (preferably, in advance) about conflicts regarding attendance.

Participation:

Your active engagement in the class will be assessed, through both activity in the class discussions via Canvas Discussions associated with assignments, when assigned, but also during in-class sessions. I hope to hear each of your voices at least once per class—raise your hand, chime in, or I'll call on you.... The participation grade, since interactivity will be limited due to blended learning format, will be derived from completion of the 3-2-1 template exercises due after each class (by 11:59pm the following day), and collectively contribute 18.02% to the final grade.

Our class sessions will be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

Please be aware that a C- is not an acceptable grade for graduate students. The GPA for graduate students must be 3.0. in all 5000 level courses and above to graduate. A grade of C counts toward a graduate degree only if a sufficient number of credits in courses numbered 5000 or higher have been earned with a B+ or higher. In addition, the Bachelor of Health Science Program does not use C-grades.

For greater detail on the meaning of letter grades and university policies related to them, see the Registrar's Grade Policy regulations at:

<http://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

Exam Policy:

There will be 2 exams in this course. Exam 1 (midterm) will be completed during the scheduled course time via canvas. Exam 2 will be completed via Canvas and proctored by HonorLock during “Finals Week” (on 12/13,10am-12pm). Exams are closed book, will consist of multiple-choice and short-answer and an extra credit question. Exams will focus on the course content covered since the previous exam; that is, exams will not be cumulative. Each exam is worth 100 points, for a total of 200 points.

Policy Related to Make up Exams or Other Work:

We expect you to attend and to be prepared to participate in all class sessions. Personal issues with respect to fulfillment of course requirements will be handled on an individual basis. If you must miss an exam because of a foreseeable conflict (i.e., professional conference, athletic competition, religious observance, etc.) you are expected to notify us immediately to set-up alternative arrangements prior to the exam date. If a student is not in class for an exam due to an illness or medical emergency, they will be required to provide a statement from their healthcare provider documenting the illness or medical emergency. A make-up exam will be provided the first day the student returns to their normal class schedule or at the earliest convenience of the instructor. Requirements for make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

Please note all faculty are bound by the UF policy for excused absences. For information regarding the UF Attendance Policy see the Registrar website for additional details:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (<http://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/content.php?catoid=10&navoid=2020#attendance>) and require appropriate documentation. Additional information can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Reporting illnesses and family emergencies:

In the event you experience an unexpected illness, family, or otherwise personal emergency please notify the instructor immediately to set-up alternative arrangements.

The UF Religious Holidays Policy is available at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#religious>

For University of Florida Students, the following guidelines apply:

- Students, upon prior notification to their instructors, shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith.
- Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activities covered in their absence.
- Students shall not be penalized due to absence from class or other scheduled academic activity because of religious observances.

Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail me within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.

Policy Related to Required Class Attendance:

Attendance is considered an integral part of the learning experience as class discussions and lectures will include valuable material covered in the examinations that is not otherwise covered in the textbook. Thus, class attendance will be taken, and students are expected to attend all classes and participate in class discussions to have exposure to this information. Class attendance will be calculated into your final grade in the course through submission of the in-class assignments and bi-weekly quizzes. NOTE THAT STUDENTS WHO ARE NOT PRESENT IN CLASS (or zoom, if used) WILL NOT RECEIVE CREDIT FOR TURNING IN A IN-CLASS ASSIGNMENT OR QUIZ/EXAM THROUGH CANVAS. If students must be absent, they will be responsible for any missed material by acquiring lecture notes from other students who attended, or viewing the zoom-recorded lecture. You can expect that class slides will, in most cases, be on Canvas; however, not every lecture has slides that will accompany it and not all information will be on slides. Some material presented in lectures will not be in the text and will be included on examinations. Thus, reduced attendance can be expected to result in a lower course grade. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

Please note all faculty are bound by the UF policy for excused absences. For information regarding the UF Attendance Policy see the Registrar website for additional details: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Please remember cheating, lying, misrepresentation, or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable and inexcusable behavior.

Professionalism and COVID

As students pursuing a path in the health professions or public health, it is crucial to demonstrate professional behaviors that reflect integrity and commitment to the health of patients, fellow health professionals, and to populations we serve. To accomplish this, a strong responsibility for the well-being of others must be evident in our decisions, along with accountability for our actions. Professionalism in the health disciplines requires adherence to high standards of conduct that begin long before graduation. This is particularly true during times of health emergencies such as the COVID pandemic, given our professional habits can have a direct impact upon the health of persons entrusted to us.

If you are not vaccinated, get vaccinated. Vaccines are readily available at no cost and have been demonstrated to be safe and effective against the COVID-19 virus. Visit this link for details on where to get your shot, including options that do not require an appointment: <https://coronavirus.uflhealth.org/vaccinations/vaccine-availability/>. Students who receive the first dose of the vaccine somewhere off-campus and/or outside of Gainesville can still receive their second dose on campus.

In response to COVID-19, the following professional practices are in place to maintain your learning environment, to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions, and to protect the health and safety of ourselves, our patients, our neighbors, and our loved ones.

- You are required to wear approved face coverings at all times while in Health Science Center classrooms and within Health Science Center buildings even if you are vaccinated.
- If you are sick, stay home and self-quarantine. Please visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website about next steps, retake the questionnaire and schedule your test for no sooner than 24 hours after your symptoms began. Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Inclusive Learning Environment:

Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feels valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida's Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, "The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination. The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act." If you have questions or concerns about your rights and responsibilities for inclusive learning environment, please see your instructor or refer to the Office of Multicultural & Diversity Affairs website: www.multicultural.ufl.edu.
