

UF Graduate School Application: Instructions for Program of Study

Step 1: Do not use the search feature. Click on “College of Public Health and Health Professions.”

The screenshot shows the 'UF Application for Graduate Admissions' interface. On the left is a navigation sidebar with 'Application Sections' including Personal Information, Conduct Disclosure, Application Information, Program of Study, Academic Background, Activities, Test Score Information, Additional Questions, Letters of Recommendation, Residency Information, and Acknowledgement. The 'Program of Study' section is active. The main content area has a header 'UF Application for Graduate Admissions' and a sub-header 'Program of Study'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'Search for a Program' and a 'Type to Search' input field. There are buttons for 'Show All Programs' and 'Filter by...'. A message box says 'Click on any department to display available programs.' Below this is a list of departments: College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, College of Arts, College of Dentistry, College of Design, Construction and Planning, College of Education, College of Health and Human Performance, College of Journalism and Communications, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, College of Medicine, College of Nursing, College of Pharmacy, College of Public Health and Health Professions (circled in red), College of Veterinary Medicine, Fisher School of Accounting, Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering, and M. E. Rinker, Sr. School of Construction Management.

Step 2: Select “Psychology Degree Name – Doctor of Philosophy.”

DO NOT select a Master’s degree, we do not offer one in this department.
